Teams up with Cold Iron Studios and 20th Century to bring Aliens: Fireteam to fans across Europe and a number of Asia/Pacific territories

PARIS, FRANCE – 3 June 2021 – FOCUS HOME INTERACTIVE (FR0012419307 ALFOC), one of the Europe's leading video game publishers and developers, is pleased to announce its collaboration with Cold Iron Studios and 20th Century Games for the release of Aliens: Fireteam, which will be released in Summer 2021 on Xbox Series X|S, Xbox One, PlayStation®5, PlayStation®4 and PC. Focus will be in charge of publishing the title in Europe and several territories in Asia.

Set in the iconic Alien universe, Aliens: Fireteam is a cooperative third-person survival shooter that drops your squad of hardened marines into a desperate fight to contain the evolving Xenomorph threat. Face off against waves of terrifying Xenomorph and Weyland-Yutani Synthetic foes alongside two players or AI teammates, as you and your team mates desperately fight your way through four unique campaigns that introduce new storylines to the Alien universe. Create and customize your own Colonial Marine, choosing from an extensive variety of classes, weapons, gear and perks, battling overwhelming odds in this heart-pounding survival shooter experience.

John Bert, Managing Director of Focus Home Interactive declared: "We are delighted to be helping bring this original title from the legendary Alien universe to fans. We were immediately taken in by the game, and are very happy to collaborate with 20th Century Games and Cold Iron on this extremely ambitious project. We were quickly convinced of Cold Iron studio's ability to create a unique and explosive experience."

Craig Zinkievich, Head of Cold Iron Studios declared: "We are very excited to partner with Focus Home Interactive on Aliens: Fireteam," said Craig Zinkievich, Head of Cold Iron Studios. "We respect and admire Focus' work and commitment to their titles, and we are proud to be part of their rich and varied catalog."
